Welcome from IMB Bank CEO

I'm pleased to welcome all Hunter United members along with Tim Blomfield and his team, to IMB Bank, and Jann Gardner to the IMB Bank Board.

The regulator has approved our merger and as of today, May 1st, 2020, we are a united organisation.

Each organisation has a proud history of doing the right thing by our customers and communities in keeping with our shared belief and commitment to personal, customer-owned banking.

We're pleased to provide Hunter United members with immediate benefits including the removal of most transaction and account keeping fees and a reduction of 0.10% on existing variable home loans and personal loans.

It will take some months to fully integrate the businesses and deliver the full range of merger benefits to Hunter United members. This is a significant process, and, in this regard, Tim will continue to lead the Hunter United operations as we complete the transition. We know how critical strong relationships are in helping members achieve their financial objectives. So, it was important to ensure the entire team at Hunter United continues to provide members with the service levels they have come to expect.

This is the start of what we know will be a strong and mutually beneficial partnership and we will keep you informed as we realise the full benefits of the merger.
